

INTERNATIONAL LEARNING FROM PHOENIX
PARTNERS: NAMIBIA, ZAMBIA, SOMALILAND, ETHIOPIA, IRAQ, UK

23RD SEPTEMBER 2020 PROGRAMME: DAY 1

(British Summer Time; CAT plus 1 h; EAT/AST plus 2 hr)

MORNING SESSIONS

08.40-08.50 Opening Statement Professor Judith Hall:

Phoenix's background, experience and current trajectory. Why this learning event now?

International responses to COVID-19: update on different strategies (90 mins)

Chair: John Haufiku co-Chair Miss Abi Butt

08.50-09.10 Rachel Freeman (Namibia);

09.10-09.30 Job Mwanza (Zambia);

09.30-09.50 Andrew Freedman (Cardiff, Wales).

Panel discussions: 09.55 – 10.25

Communications and health promotion in a global crisis (90 mins)

Chair Jacob Sheehama; co-Chair Dr Mariam Dahir

10.40- 11.00 Keeping people informed Simon Namesho (Namibia);

11.00- 11.20 Health promotion strategies Oliver Mweemba (Zambia);

11.20-11.40 New and innovative communication tools Frauke Stegmann (Namibia).

Panel discussions: 11.45 – 12.15

12.15-12.55 Lunch time focus Chair Professor Judith Hall (40 mins)

Medicine & Health in Somaliland: Dr Hassan Ali Daoud & Dr Mariam Abdillahi Dahir

12.55-13.15 Keynote (20 mins)

Chair: Deputy VC Cardiff University Prof Karen Holford

High Commissioner for Namibia to the UK HE Linda Scott:

Namibian Progress in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

AFTERNOON SESSIONS: Parallel Workshops

13.15-14.45 Workshop 1: (90 mins)

Managing an International Development Partnership

Leads: Nicola Pulman, Saara Kamati, Amanda Godoi

13.15-13.55 Principles of Project Management;

13.55-14.45 Roundtable exercises and discussion.

13.15-14.45 Workshop 2: (90 mins)

Remote & Challenging Anaesthesia: Education

Chairs: Brian Jenkins & Priya Babu: Presentations 20 min with 10 min discussion

13.15-13.45 UNAM Masters in Medicine (Anaesthesiology) Programme: Prof Jenkins;

13.45-14.15 The SAFE programme: Dr Tei Sheraton;

14.15-14.45 Student Mentoring: Dr Tei Sheraton.

END Day 1

24th SEPTEMBER 2020 PROGRAMME: DAY 2

MORNING SESSIONS

Maternal Mortality Africa and UK (90 mins)

Chair: Job Mwanza; co-Chair Mr Nathan White

- 08.50-09.10 Zambian experience and strategies. Dr Mulaya Mubambe (Zambia);
- 09.10-09.30 Namibian experience and strategies. Dr Chris Terblanche (Namibia);
- 09.30-09.50 Welsh experience and strategies. Dr Monica Chawathe (Wales).
- 09.55-10.25 Panel discussion

Multi-lingualism: communicating effectively where languages are many (105 mins)

Chair: Jairos Kangira & Dr Luisa Percopo

- 10.40-11.00 Challenges of Multilingualism in Wales Dr Luisa Percopo (UK);
- 11.00-11.20 The many languages in Zambia. Prof Jimaima Hambaba (Zambia);
- 11.20-11.40 Multilingualism and classroom practices in Namibia Dr Selma Ashikuti.

- 11.45-12.30 Panel Discussion

12.15 – 12.55 Lunch break (40 mins)

12.55-13.15 Keynote (20 mins)

Chair: Professor Steve Riley, Dean School of Medicine, Cardiff University
Professor Yifru Berhan, Consultant Obstetrician & Gynaecologist, Senior Researcher,
St Paul's Hospital Millennium Medical College, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia:

COVID-19 in pregnancy: why is mortality incomparably low?

AFTERNOON SESSIONS: Parallel Workshops

13.15-14.45 Workshop 3: (90 mins)

Higher Education Strategies in a Global Pandemic

Leads: Dr Maggy Beukes-Amiss, Prof Rhian Goodfellow, Dr Antony Simbeya

- 13.15-13.55 Principles and progress;
- 13.55-14.45 Roundtable discussion.

13.15-14.45 Workshop 4: (90 mins)

Remote & Challenging Anaesthesia: Practical Issues

Chairs Prof Brian Jenkins & Susanna Enongene: Presentations 20 min with 10 min discussion

- 13.15-13.45 Changing practice from Swansea to Oshakati: Dr Chris Terblanche;
- 13.45-14.15 Paediatric anaesthesia in the Developing World: Dr Monica Chawathe;
- 14.15-14.45 Obstetric anaesthesia in the Developing World: Dr Monica Chawathe.

END Day 2

25th SEPTEMBER 2020 PROGRAMME: DAY 3

MORNING SESSIONS

Why are trees and habitats important? (70 mins)

Chair: Frauke Stegmann (Namibia)

09.10-09.30 Dr Simon Angombe University of Namibia (Namibia);
09.30-09.50 Ms Nicola Pulman Phoenix Project Manager (Cardiff, Wales).
09.55-10.25 Panel discussions

International NGOs in a Global Crisis (90 mins)

Chair: Jon Townley (Wales, UK) & Amanda Godoi (Cardiff University)

10.40-11.00 UNAM Cares and how does it operate? Dr Rachel Freeman (Namibia);
11.00-11.20 Mothers of Africa and responding to COVID-19. Dr Job Mwanza (Zambia);
11.20-11.40 NGOs in Somaliland: operating during crisis: Dr Mariam Abdillahi Dahir
11.45-12.15 Panel discussions

12.15-12.55 Lunch time focus Chairs Prof Hall & Miss Hilja-Aili Shaanika (40 mins)

Introduction to the United Iraqi Medical Association: Dr Rafid Aziz
The Health System in Iraq; Challenges and Future: Dr Moayed Aziz

12.55-13.15 Keynote (20 mins)

Chair: Vice Chancellor Cardiff University Prof Colin Riordan
Professor Kenneth Matengu, Vice Chancellor, University of Namibia

The Educational and thus Economic Cost of COVID-19 to Namibia

AFTERNOON SESSIONS: Parallel Workshops

13.15-14.45 Workshop 5 (90 mins)

Phoenix MedEd Medic & Student Session: The Human Healer: Coping in Chaos

Chair: Mr Matthew Lee

13.15-13.20 Who are Phoenix MedEd? Introducing ourselves!
13.20-13.45 Dr Esther Murray (UK)
13.45-14.10 Dr Vivienne Hakaaje (Namibia)
14.10-14.45 Q & A panel session

13.15-14.45 Workshop 6: (90 mins)

Anaesthesia in remote and challenging situations: Drugs and Equipment

Chair Prof Brian Jenkins & Dr Jacob Sheehama: Presentations 20 min with 10 min discussion

13.15-13.45 Oxygen supplies: Dr Sunil Dasari;
13.45-14.15 Using ketamine in the developing world: Prof Brian Jenkins;
14.15-14.45 Portable anaesthetic apparatus: TBC (presentation by the British Military).

14.45-15.15 Final words: Global friends of Phoenix Project: Chair Simon Namesho
Drs Mwanza, Sheehama & Prof Hall. Close of meeting (30 mins)